Planning a wedding can be both exciting and overwhelming. One of the first questions couples often ask is where to get married in Singapore. With so many amazing hotel wedding venues and packages to pick from in Singapore, choosing “the one” can be difficult. Whatever you’re looking for – a lavish wedding reception, intimate banquet or picturesque country affair – here are some favourite spots to get hitched. Bookmark this list for future reference!

Note: Prices are subject to change; contact individual wedding venues and hotels for details of specific reception packages.

Oasia Hotel Novena, Singapore by Far East Hospitality

Choosing where to get married in Singapore is a delightful challenge. Go for a show-around of this elegant hotel, however, and you may wonder why you ever considered another wedding venue. There are multiple spaces to host your nuptials, with both indoor and alfresco options for intimate ceremonies or larger wedding banquets. It’s also amazingly central, with direct basement access to the Novena MRT station.

Say your vows in a charming solemnisation for up to 30 guests at the tropical-inspired Garden Gazebo. The Courtyard and Fountain Foyer with its romantic water garden feature are also gorgeous spots to share one of the most important days of your life with your special friends and family.

Everything about your nuptials here will be designed entirely bespoke. The customised wedding packages include the services of a dedicated team to help make your dreams come true – from themed decorations and catering, to stylish guest accommodation for that growing guest list. All of which make it one of the top wedding venues in Singapore!

We hear from Karen Chua, senior catering manager:

“Depending on your wedding package of choice, guests can tuck into exquisite Western set menus, buffets and cocktail canapes at our venue in Singapore. There are so many perks, too. These include floral-themed arrangements for the solemnisation ceremony and hard-copy wedding invites.”

A client’s testimonial on this wedding venue in Singapore:

“Thank you for all the help on our big day! You really were the best banquet manager we could have asked for. We’re deeply appreciative of your creative ideas, super prompt replies and accommodating our various changes.” – Matthew & Jean

Capacity: 50 to 120 guests
